Features

Spacious California rancher home with beautiful wood shingle siding! A fixer upper with huge potential. Since a landslide took out the front yard, this house has been waiting for the right person to come along to give it a new home. The windows, doors, and hardwood floors have been salvaged by the original owner. With a little faith and some elbow grease, this home has the potential to be something truly beautiful. Great value! Please call to view before it's too late!
