Features

This beautiful 2002 waterfront rambler is spacious and open to your potential view. There are plenty of large windows that face the waterfront in its current location. This home will work well for a family — with room to grow.

There’s a generous master bedroom & secondary bedroom on one end of the house and additional rooms on the opposite end which have been partially renovated with the drywall currently removed down to studs. These rooms can be customized and decorated as an additional bedroom or two if you decide to do so.

The kitchen, formal dining room, and massive living room and entertainment spaces are open-plan style with views through to the kitchen. This home will make for a wonderful gathering place for friends and family alike!
